Hi the president, we want you to save the rhino, if you save them they will get a better life like people who lives the better life. So please, please we are begging you with a big respect. And we wish you the best in your youth service. If you save our rhino we will be happy forever in the world. So please do this. But for us it you do so you will be the best best president in the world. Thank you for giving me a moment to please you. Thank you. Have a nice day! God bless you.
