Dear Mr. President,
I am very delighted to write you this letter.
I hope and believe that you are fine.

Mr. President, I am very sad to hear that in your country there are a lot of Rhinos there, but your people had be killing them and selling their horns.

Mr. President, I like Rhinos very much so whenever I go to the zoo and I saw them I feel very excited but when I hear that your people are killing them I feel very sad.

Mr. President, I can assure you that within twenty years coming and your people are still killing the Rhinos in your country all of them will die and we will not be able to see them again. OR your generations will not be able to see Rhinos any more.

So therefore, I will like to plead with you and your people to put an end of the killing of Rhinos so that you can help to improve the development of South Africa and I want to assure you ^{that} bring them to the Ghana so that we can send them to the zoo.

Yours faithfully

Sandra Boakeye.
