

Dear President Zuma,

Please pay close attention to the rhino population in your country.

The planet is in a precarious state, and there is enough at stake with climate change and other environmental issues. We can save the rhinos from poaching and make this world a better place for generations to come.

Thank you very much,

Chloe Maximin