Dear President Zuma,

Your country, South Africa, is home to the endangered white Rhino. Hundreds of these animals are being poached each year. If this continues the white Rhinos will become extinct. Rhinos are an important part of an ecosystem. Other animals rely on rhinos. If rhinos become extinct the animals that rely on rhinos will become extinct too. A rhino calf needs its mother for at least three years. So if people poach the mother rhino, the baby rhino will die too. The South African government revealed

Dear President Zuma,

that 668 rhinos were slaughtered in 2012.
This is a 5000% increase since 2007. Please Please protect the white rhino so they won't become extinct.

Yours most sincerely,
